

PERFIL PROFESIONAL

UX/UI Designer with experience in developing scalable digital products, strategic platform redesign, and creating centralized design systems. Specialized in information architecture, accessibility, inclusive design, and UX research, with a focus on educational applications, fintech, and data-driven solutions.

I have worked on interface design, prototyping, usability testing, and user experience optimization for various industries, including education, digital health, and technology. My approach emphasizes continuous iteration, strategic data-driven decision-making, and collaboration with multidisciplinary teams.
